The 2019 STEM Equity Conference was held on October 25th and 26th at UC Berkeley and hosted by the UC System-wide Faculty Learning Community Project, the California Learning Lab, and the Biology Scholars Program. The conference brought together 145 change agents from the UC, CSU, and California Community Colleges. It resulted in rich dialogue around the challenges and opportunities set before us as we advance toward greater STEM equity, inclusion, and institutional change.

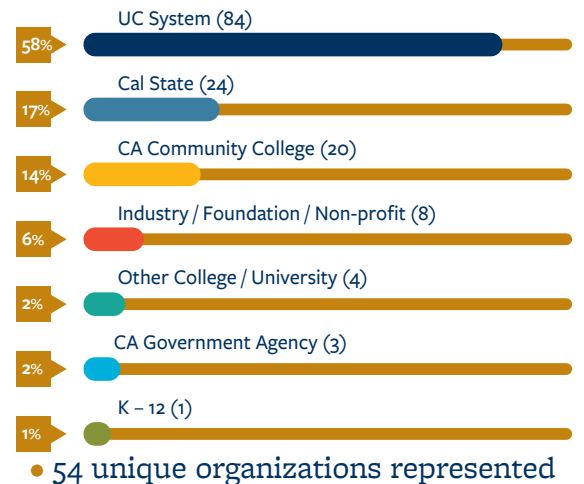

“What is your departmental and/or disciplinary affiliation?”
